

LUTHER FOR EASTER 5

“The summary of evangelical doctrine, then, is that we proclaim what sin and righteousness are, and that because of this doctrine we may expect the world’s judgment and condemnation. Yet we take comfort from what Christ says here: The prince of this world is already judged. This doctrine about sin and righteousness we preach diligently, and as a result we endure the world’s judgment against us. And even though we have already reprovved the world of judgment, one indictment after the other, the fact is that we will have to bear the repercussions of reproof. But when our adversaries, the papists, accuse us of disallowing good works, they are doing us an injustice and are maligning us. For we reprove and condemn the pope, along with his monks and priests, not on account of good works, but because they refuse to believe in Christ, that he alone is our righteousness.

“What we preach is this: The pieties of the pope and the wisdom of the world add up to nothing. Monkery and monastic life add up to the same thing. Secular life without faith in Christ can only amount to zero, no matter how holy and spiritual it appears. However, Christian righteousness is that Christ has gone to the Father, has poured out his blood for us on the cross, and has seated himself at the right hand of the heavenly Father. This is the article of our Creed concerning man’s justification, and we must know it well, in order to be able to protect and sustain ourselves against the devil, false doctrine, and our own conscience, all of which contend against this article. Amen” (1533 Sermon for the Fourth Sunday after Easter – Cantate).

11. The Epistle: James 1:16-21

Do not be deceived, my beloved brothers. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights with whom there is no variation or shadow due to change. Of His own will He brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of His creatures.

Know this, my beloved brothers: let every person be quick to hear, slow to speak, slow to anger; for the anger of man does not produce the righteousness of God. Therefore put away all filthiness and rampant wickedness and receive with meekness the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. (ESV)

P: This is the Word of the Lord.

C: Thanks be to God.

12. The Holy Gospel: St. John 16:5-15

[Jesus said:] "But now I am going to Him who sent Me, and none of you asks Me, 'Where are You going?' But because I have said these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: it is to your advantage that I go away, for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you. But if I go, I will send Him to you. And when He comes, He will convict the world concerning sin and righteousness and judgment: concerning sin, because they do not believe in Me; concerning righteousness, because I go to the Father, and you will see Me no longer; concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world is judged.

"I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, He will guide you into all the truth, for He will not speak on His own authority, but whatever He hears He will speak, and He will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify Me, for He will take what is Mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is Mine; therefore I said that He will take what is Mine and declare it to you." (ESV)

P: This is the Holy Gospel of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Grant us hearts, dear Lord, to yield Thee
Gladly, freely, of Thine own.

With the sunshine of Thy goodness
Melt our thankless hearts of stone
Till our cold and selfish natures,
Warmed by Thee, at length believe
That more happy and more blessed
'Tis to give than to receive. (#459:2)
